

Our Autumn 2010 Event Schedule

NEWTON, MA –

This is shaping up to be a very busy September and October for our group. We have some new updates to the website, some new team members, and we may have even more exciting news as the Autumn progresses.

Our events this Fall include:

- Environmental Business Council (Sept 17, Glastonbury, CT) – Following on the heels of a very successful event in Massachusetts, the Connecticut Environmental Business Council is hosting a session on connecting brownfield redevelopment to end user and market needs. CWS Partner Raymond Bhumagara will join Chris Steele in kicking off the session. More details at <http://bit.ly/9pqKz1>
- CoreNet Global Summit (September 18-21, Phoenix, AZ) – Chris Steele will join location selection and economic development experts Andy Shapiro, Linda Burns, and Dennis Donovan to discuss issues and best practices at the Economic Development Roundtable on Sept 20. Learn more at <http://bit.ly/bsk4Fn>
- Journal of Commerce East Coast Maritime Conference (Sept 28, Jersey City, NJ) – Wondering about how changes in transocean shipping will impact distribution center site selection? Join us at the JOC event at the Hyatt Regency in Jersey City. <http://bit.ly/a8U5e9>
- BSCES Berger Symposium (Sept 30, Boston, MA) – New England's premier engineering meeting will be held at historic Pier 4 on Boston's waterfront. This year our focus is rail and the program is entitled "Back to the Future - Making Our Rail System Work Effectively in Massachusetts and Beyond". Event details will be posted at <http://www.bsces.org/>
